

MUSIC SCHOOL
„STEVAN MOKRANJAC“
POŽAREVAC

Music school `Stevan Mokranjac` was founded in 1949 and started working on April 1st, 1950. Secondary music school started working in 1983.

Today, there are approximately 700 students in primary and secondary school.

Music school, based in Požarevac, has offshoots in: Kostolac, Kučevo, Malo Crniće and Veliko Gradište.

The school has its own Recording studio and every year a CD called `The Best Students` is released. The school has video equipment so all the important events are recorded. School paper called `Prima Vista` is also published. The school organizes: Guitar competition `Miloš Đorđević Memorial` in February, Solfeggio competition in March, Competition of woodwinds in April and local happening called `Cultural summer` on its Summer stage. Concerts of eminent artists are organized throughout the school year.

The school has won many awards. The school takes part in all local happenings, and there is a good co-operation with many cultural centers in the country.

Young educated professionals, who have been educated in this school themselves, now work here.

1. The competition of chamber ensembles will be held at `Stevan Mokranjac` Music school in Požarevac within the Competition of woodwinds from April 19th – 22nd, 2012.

2. The competition of chamber ensembles will include the following disciplines: duo, trio, quartet, quintet, sextet, septet, octet i nonet, with a prerequisite of each ensemble having at least one woodwind instrument.

3. The competitors will be divided into two categories:

1st category: primary school students

2nd category: secondary school students

Ensembles consisting of both primary and secondary school students fall into the 2nd category.

4. The ensembles will perform a programme of their own choice with a time limit:

I category – no longer than 10 minutes

II category –no longer than 15 minutes

5. Application will not be accepted after March 20th, 2012 and have to be sent to the following address:

Music School “Stevan Mokranjac”
12000 Požarevac, Serbia, Kneza Lazara 1
Phone/fax: +381 12 223 396
e-mail: office@mokranjac.rs
www.mokranjac.rs

6. Apart from the application form, the competitors must also submit:

- birth certificate

- proof of the paid fee in the amount of 40 € in the equivalent value in dinars, to the account number of the music school:

840 – 1222666-88

call for number

97 54016247451000004914

If the competitors should decide to cancel their applications, there will be no refund.

Foreign competitors can pay their donation during arrival at the competition.

7. A jury consisting of distinguished professors and eminent musicians from Serbia and abroad will evaluate the competitors, and they will be appointed by the organizer.

8. The most successful ensembles will receive prizes:

1st prize for 95-100 points won

2nd prize for 90-94,99 points won

3rd prize for 85-89,99 points won commendation for 75-84,99 points won

9. The jury and the organizers will also give special prizes to the best ensembles.

10. The competitors and participants themselves will pay for the accommodation and food expenses during their stay in Požarevac.

11. The organizer offers possibility of buying the recorded performances.