

Anton Kushnir – flute professor of Ukrainian National Tchaikovsky Academy of Music, PhD, soloist of The Symphony Orchestra of the National Philharmonic of Ukraine.

Anton Kushnir is the professor of flute class, dean of the faculty of orchestral instruments of Ukrainian National Tchaikovsky Academy of Music (UNTAM), PhD, the author of scientific studies with issues of history, theory, methods of performance on flute.

A. Kushnir is an Art Director of the International Flute Festival and Competition “Kyiv Flute Days”. Together with the Ukrainian pianist Maria Pukhlianko, he is the leader of Ensemble of soloists “Solo Plus”.

He was born in 1979 in Chernihiv (Ukraine). A. Kushnir received his professional education in UNTAM in the class of prof. Volodymyr Antonov and studied Postgraduate at the chamber music class of prof. Ludmila Tsvirko. A. Kushnir also perfected his skills at the Chopin University of Music (Warsaw, Poland) in the class of prof. Elzbieta Dastych-Szwarc.

- Laureate of the 1st prize of the XV Ukrainian National Competition;
 - Laureate of the 1st prize of the International Competition "ART of XXI century";
- Scholarship holder of:
- Program of the Ukrainian Culture Fund "NEW NAMES";
 - Program of the Ministry of Culture of Poland "GAUDE POLONIA";
 - DAAD (Germany);

A. Kushnir successfully combines pedagogical activity and varied performing activity - he is an soloist of The Symphony Orchestra of the National Philharmonic of Ukraine.