

Maria Pukhlianko – an Honor Artist of Ukraine, laureate of international piano competitions, Doctor of philosophy (PhD), Professor of Summer musical academy (under patronage of International Competition for young pianists in memory of Vladimir Horowitz), associate Professor at the P.I.Tchaikovsky National Music Academy of Ukraine.

M. Pukhlianko is an art-director of the International Festival "Dynasty", director of the project "The art of playing with orchestra", an art-director of several projects: "The evenings of a piano art", "Multy-hands piano", "Beautiful Classic", etc.

M. Pukhlianko is a jury member and a chief of the jury-team in lots of piano competitions in different countries, including Ukraine, Spain, Japan and Israel. She is also a director of ENSEMBLE OF SOLOISTS "SOLO PLUS" which was created by Maria Pukhlianko and Anton Kushnir at 2004.

She was born at the family of musicians. Maria started her piano lessons from six. She graduated Master Degree at the P.I.Tchaikovsky National Music Academy of Ukraine.

Maria Pukhlianko also acquainted oneself with different national piano schools. She studied at the master classes of the famous professors: Alexander Alexandrov (Russia), Warren Thomson (Australia), Dina Ioffe (Israel), Norma Fisher (Great Britain), Oxana Yablonskaya (USA-Israel), Cristina Ortiz (Brazil).

Maria is a talented pianist who has a delicate sense of style, poetry, creative imagination, strong artistic will, musical conviction. She constantly plays with leading Ukrainian orchestras.

She performs with piano recitals at the well-known stages, has a lot of radio-records. She has recorded two CD – "Slavonic miniatures" and "Piano with orchestra: Maria Pukhlianko and Ensemble of soloists SOLO PLUS".

She represented Ukrainian piano art in USA, Japan, Germany, Italy, Croatia, Russia, France, Hungary, Great Britain, Austria, Poland, Finland, Netherlands, Denmark.